Autumn / Winter
Collection 2017

Home is where the nature is present.

This autumn's interiors are characterised by genuine craftsmanship, featuring natural materials, textures and designs. The work of the hand is evident, and long awaited.

Our colour scale is drawn from the nature which surrounds us, combining the stormy greyscale of the autumn sea, the pines, with their countless growth rings, and the twilight, which sets in earlier and earlier. An orchard in autumn shades, and time, which makes the landscape fade. Subdued hues which embrace our Scandinavian heritage.

This is where we feel at home. Our soul and our origin, which we nurture and pass on. For the floor, the table and storage. Selected with insight and devotion, our range is produced with the greatest consideration and respect for nature. This is our invitation to friendship and conversation; to the spirit of coexistence which grows strong as the land awaits the fall of snow.

If you see these symbols in the catalog, it means that the products are approved according to the REACH and POP's regulations.

This symbol means that the product can be used for both indoor and outdoor living.

PET – A sustainable concept.

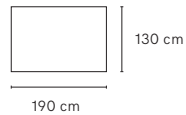

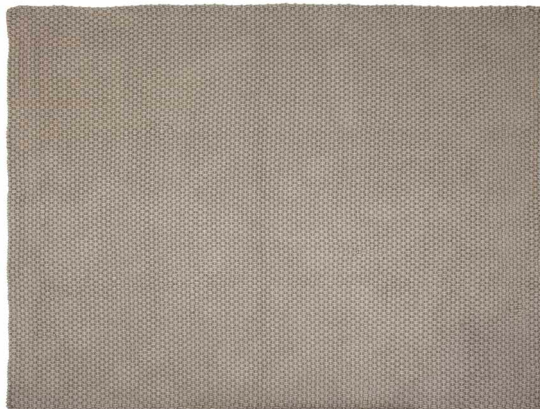

An empty PET bottle is recycled into smooth, durable polyester thread. Firstly treated to withstand UV radiation and then woven into fine items, on traditional looms by skilled Indian artisans.

A collection that can withstand pouring rain and brilliant sunshine alike, but also works well indoors for those who wish.

MATERIAL 100% polyester from recycled PET-bottles.

Scandinavian design inspired by nature

Let's go back in time. To our roots. Back to the Swedish west coast. There it stood, the small vintage shop with a unique, personal collection selected by Maria Mellander, the founder of Dixie.

Now we look ahead. Today and tomorrow, still dedicated to producing beautiful, sustainable items, caringly and authentically crafted. A carefully selected range of everyday items for your home, made with Scandinavian heritage at heart. Natural, gentle colours and different natural materials in perfect harmony.

Everyday items inspired by our changing landscape. Subtle Scandinavianism. Developed together, in-house, or in close collaboration with talented designers and artists. Crafted in different places all over the world, making a difference for our customers and those who produce our products. That's our reason for being. Our soul.
